Program Effectiveness Data

The following is the most current program effectiveness data. Our programmatic accreditation agency, the Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiologic Technology (JRCERT), defines and publishes this information. Click here to go directly to the JRCERT webpage.

Credentialing Examination: The number of students who pass, on the first attempt, the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) certification examination, or an unrestricted state licensing examination, compared with the number of graduates who take the examination within six months of graduation. The five-year average benchmark established by the JRCERT is 75%.

Job Placement: The number of graduates employed in the radiologic sciences compared to the number of graduates actively seeking employment in the radiologic sciences within twelve months of graduating. The five-year average benchmark established by the JRCERT is 75%.

PASS RATE: Credentialing Examination Pass Rate - for radiography is defined as the number of student graduates who pass, on the first attempt, the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) examination or an unrestricted state licensing examination, compared with the number of graduates who take the examination within six months of graduation.

- Calculating/reporting five-year average credentialing examination pass rate:
- Credentialing Examination Pass Rate = total number of graduates who pass the credentialing exam on first attempt for examinations taken within six months of graduation (twelve months for medical dosimetry) ÷ total number taking the exam within six months of graduation (twelve months for medical dosimetry) during the 2015-2019 reporting period.

2015-2019 ARRT PASS RATE ON FIRST ATTEMPT (Benchmark 75%)

YEAR	# Taking Exam	# Passing on 1 st Attempt	% Passing	Notes:
2019	14	14	100%
2018	11	10	91%
2017	12	12	100%
2016	16	13	81%
2015	13	11	85%	14 Graduated only 13 took registry within 6 months timeframe.
5 year Average	66	60	91%

Five-year Average = 91% PASSING ARRT ON FIRST ATTEMPT

JOB PLACEMENT RATE: (Benchmark 75%)- – Job Placement Rate (JPR) - is defined as the number of graduates employed in radiography within twelve months of graduation compared to the number of graduates actively seeking employment in the radiologic sciences.

- Graduates should be counted as employed only if employed in the specific field from which they have graduated (employment in CT would be considered part of the Radiography field).
- Full-time, part-time, PRN, etc. are all considered as “Employed.”
- Calculating/reporting five-year average job placement rate: Job Placement Rate = the total number of graduates employed in radiography within twelve months of graduation ÷ the number of graduates who actively sought employment in the radiologic sciences (for the 2014-2018 reporting period).

• PROGRAM COMPLETION RATE: (Benchmark 75%)

Annual Program Completion Rate (PCR) - is defined as the number of students who complete the program within 150% of the stated program length compared with the number of students who initially started with the cohort.

- Calculating completion within 150% of the program length allows programs with students that are unable to complete all program requirements with their class/cohort but do not drop out of the program, to be reported with their graduation class/cohort.
- If a student leaves the program for the following reasons they should be counted as attrition:
  - Withdrawal from the program for any reason (program should track all reasons)
  - Are terminated for any reason, e.g., academic failure, etc. (program should track all reasons)
- If the student is unable to complete the entirety of the program with his/her class, and it is anticipated that the student can meet all requirements, the program does not have to count the student as attrition. The definition allows these students up to 150% of the length of the program to complete.
