Your Obligation:

- You are obligated to fully disclose any convictions, guilty pleas or no contest plea even if you do not think it will show up during a record search.

 - o Pay a fine
 - o Serve probation or house arrest
 - o Participate in a work release program or other mandatory training program
 - o Participate in a diversion / non-adjudication program
 - o Complete other requirements considered appropriate by the judge hearing your case
- Convictions do not automatically “drop off” of your record after a certain period of time (i.e. 7 years) and should be disclosed regardless of the length of time since the conviction.
- For an arrest and/or a conviction that appears on your RAP sheet, you must provide documentation attesting to all the facts related to the arrest and/or conviction.
- For a conviction that appears on your RAP sheet that legally should have been removed from your record (expunged), you must provide documentation that an order to remove the conviction was executed prior to the application deadline to remain in the RGT Program.
