ACADEMIC FREEDOM

POLICY:

- The college faculty and students are free to examine all pertinent data, question assumptions, be guided by the evidence of scholarly research, and teach and study the substance of a given discipline.

PROCEDURE:

- The instructor is entitled to full freedom in research and in publication of the results; subject to the adequate performance of other assigned academic duties; but research for monetary return should be based on an understanding with the authorities of the institution.
- The instructor is entitled to freedom in the classroom discussing course context, but should be careful to avoid emphasis on topics that have no relation to the course context.
- The instructor is a citizen, member of a learned profession and an officer of an educational institution. When writing or speaking as a citizen, there should be freedom from institutional censorship or discipline, but the instructor's special position in the community imposes special obligations. As a person of learning and an educational officer, the instructor should remember that the public may judge the profession and the institution by what is said. Hence, instructors should at all times be accurate, should exercise appropriate restraint, should show respect for the opinions of others, and should make every effort to avoid appearing as an institutional spokesperson.

- Asking for or giving another student information during a test.

- Using material prohibited by the instructor during a test.
- Either impersonating another student during a test or having another person assume one's identity during a test.

- Stealing examination materials.
- Plagiarism which is copying material, either exactly or in essence, and not providing appropriate documentation.
- Copying or falsifying a laboratory or clinical project or assignment, including computer programs, in either disk or hard copy form.
- Allowing someone else to compose or rewrite a student's assignment.
- Stealing, buying, selling, or otherwise providing research papers.

Vocational students enrolled in a "shop class" will be allowed a maximum of six absences per semester.
- B. SUMMER DAY CLASSES: Academic and technical students are allowed only two absences during any four-week term. Vocational students enrolled in an eight-week "shop course" are allowed four absences.
- C. WEEKEND CLASSES: A student should not be absent from any part of a weekend class. Only in extreme circumstances may a student be excused by the instructor for missing any portion of a weekend class session.

■ ATTENDANCE

- A. To pass a course, a student is required to take all tests scheduled by the instructor and satisfactorily fulfill the performance objectives of each course.
 - B. If a student has to miss class, on the day the student returns to class, he or she has the responsibility of contacting the instructor in order to schedule any make-up work.
 - C. A student may make up work missed if valid reasons for missing, such as illness, accident, or other extenuating circumstances are accepted by the instructor. A student has one week after returning to class to schedule make up work unless circumstances indicate that extra time is needed. Regular scheduled tests and exams missed without a valid reason will be recorded as a grade of zero.
 - D. Students will be informed of those programs which may have specific attendance requirements mandated by external agencies and/or program guidelines.
 - E. After a student cuts out of a class, he or she cannot be readmitted to that class without permission from the instructor.
 - (1) A request for a hearing with the instructor must be made one day after the student has been informed by the instructor that he or she has been dropped from class due to excessive absences.
 - (2) Readmission to class will be determined based on reasonable evidence presented to the instructor. Therefore, students requesting a hearing should be prepared to show proof to support their argument for excessive absences, i.e. a doctor's excuse, etc.
 - F. School business will not be counted as an absence from class. The names of students to be excused will appear in the Friday Report. Faculty and staff members responsible for activities requiring students to miss school must report the absences to the appropriate dean's secretary before 9:00 a.m. Thursday after an absence for school business.
 - G. A record of class attendance will be kept beginning with the date of the first class meeting.
 - H. Instructors should turn in "cut-out" forms to the admissions office no later than Thursday at 3:00 p.m. of the following week.
 - I. Three tardies will count as one absence. A tardy of 15 minutes or more will be considered an absence. A student leaving any class without official dismissal will be counted absent.
 - J. An instructor of a distance education course will record attendance in a grade book. A distance education student is classified as current, active, inactive or dropped/withdrawn with the last date of attendance recorded. These categories are defined as follows:
 - Current: Contact is being made on a regular basis and student is current in all assignments.
 - Active: Contact is being made on a regular basis, however, the student may be behind in submitting his/her work.
 - Inactive: Contact has been lost with the student.
 - Dropped (Withdrawn): Student dropped the course and documentation submitted by student is confirmed.
- The last date of attendance (LDA) for an inactive student or a dropped student will be the last date of contact with the student. The instructor should download a copy of his or her class roster at the end of the sixth week. This report will be complete with dates indicating if the student is active, inactive, current, withdrawn, or dropped. The last date of attendance (LDA) will be shown. The student's attendance status is determined by the instructor and supported by the email logs, assignment and test columns, verification of log-in and log-out times, time spent in a particular unit or other part of online courseware, time spent in chats and online discussion.

DISABILITY SERVICES

POLICY:

- Pearl River Community College provides reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities in accordance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990.

PROCEDURE:

- Each college division, campus and/or center has a designated ADA Coordinator that verifies eligibility for accommodations and works with eligible students to develop and coordinate plans for the provision of reasonable accommodations.

- (1) Eligible students include those who are enrolled or admitted in degree and non-degree programs offered by PRCC and are considered qualified to meet all college program requirements despite a disability. The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act define a person with a disability as a person who "...has a physical, emotional, or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of life's major activities."
- (2) For a student to receive reasonable accommodations for a disability, he or she must file an application and provide current documentation of a disability. After an application is filed, a student will schedule an appointment with a designated ADA Coordinator. A plan for reasonable accommodations and services will be established according to the division (Academic or Career/Technical) and or Center (Forrest County or Hancock) the student is attending.
 - (A) Applications for disability verification and accommodations are available from and may be filed with the appropriate ADA Coordinator.
 - (B) Documentation of a disability from an appropriate licensed or certified health/mental health professional with expertise related to a student's disability must be filed with the appropriate ADA Coordinator. This documentation must include a statement of how the disability limits a major life area, thus impacting a student's participation in courses, programs, services, activities and facilities. Evaluations for the purpose of documentation must have been completed within three to five years of the application with the appropriate ADA Coordinator. The ADA Coordinator does not assist students in obtaining appropriate documentation and does not refer students for eligibility evaluations. Students who do not have current documentation of a disability and who request referrals for such evaluations will be provided with a list of possible resources, appropriate community agencies and professionals. All fees associated with procuring documentation are the responsibility of the student.
- (3) In order to provide confidentiality and develop a trusting relationship with students, disability-related information will be treated under the same strict rules of confidentiality as medical information described in detail in the PRCC Disability Services Guidebook. The only exceptions are if the student states intent to harm himself/herself or others, or a student gives written authorization to the ADA Coordinator for the release of information when the student wishes to share the information with others, per Mississippi law and pursuant to a court order or subpoena. The ADA Coordinator requires a student to complete a written release before releasing information.
- (4) All distant education courses are designed to be ADA compliant and accessible to students with disabilities.

The PRCC Appeals Court is comprised of two members of the PRCC student body, two members of the PRCC faculty and staff, and is presided over by the Campus Vice President or his or her designee. The decision of this court is final and will exhaust the Pearl River Community College Student Due Process Procedure.
