Work to renovate the Hancock Center in Waveland, which was devastated by Hurricane Katrina, is underway. PRC President William Lewis and Vice President for Instruction John Grant met with building officials recently and plans call for the center to be fully operational again sometime in the spring. Currently, Hancock County classes are being held at Stennis International Airport.

State your choice

LIFE IS all about choices. Do you wear the tennis shoes or the Crocs? Do you buy a PC or a Mac? Pocket DJ or iPod? Cheeseburger or salad?

College is about choices, too, especially which one to attend. As a transfer student, we know you already have some college experience and the choice you make for completing your education is vital to your future. So, choose wisely—choose State.
