

INSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH

Policy:

Pearl River Community College may conduct or participate in research for institutional effectiveness.

Procedure:

Research done locally is for establishment or improvement of instructional programs or college services for the students or the college community.

The Office of Planning and Research will coordinate research activities with appropriate college committees and personnel.